HERMAN K. WILLIAMS FCAA FOUNDER & PRESIDENT/CEO TO RETIRE RICHARD L. CHISHOLM NAMED NEW PRESIDENT/CEO

Herman K. Williams

Herman K. Williams, FCAA Founder & President/CEO will retire effective December 31, 2009 after 25 years of service.

Williams, a native of Arcadia, Florida moved to South Florida at an early age.

He graduated from Northwestern Senior High, and later joined the United States Air Force. After serving in the United States Air Force, he attended

South Carolina State University and Florida Memorial University earning his Bachelor's Degree.

In 1970, Williams began working with the YMCA of Greater Miami as the Executive Director of the G.W. Carver Branch and later became the Senior Vice President of Operations. Following his vision of helping youths and their families, Williams founded The Family Christian Association of America (FCAA) on February 9, 1984. He began the journey with a mere $25,000 in resources raised to serve the Black Community in Miami. Despite these limited means, FCAA served over 800 youngsters a day in its first year and established itself as a premier social service agency. "I have seen my vision realized at FCAA and I have had a stellar career. I wish to thank the board of directors, staff and supporters who helped build this program into one of the finest and dynamic organization in the Non-Profit arena. We have touched and changed many lives in the past 25 years. I leave you my legacy. Thanks for the memories!" says Williams. For 25 years, under Williams' leadership, FCAA has provided, and continues to provide a variety of services and programs annually to more than 20,000 children and their families.

In addition, The Corporate Board of Directors has named Richard Chisholm, Vice President/Chief Financial Officer, to succeed Williams. Chisholm has been employed with FCAA for over 18 years. Prior to working with FCAA, Chisholm was employed with Coopers & Lybrand, CPA as an auditor and served on FCAA's Corporate Board of Directors for 2 years. "I'm honored to be given the opportunity to serve in this capacity for a dedicated community based organization and under the direction of a committed board of directors." says Chisholm.

The Family Christian Association of America (FCAA) was founded by Herman K. Williams, President/CEO, on February 9, 1984. Its mission is to help its members achieve independence through emphasis on Christian values, strong families, and self-determination. The organization's programs include Youth Development, Family Services, and Sports.

For more information about FCAA and how you can become a member please contact Rosalyn Alls at 305.685.4881 ext 217.
